Don't You Give Up

Hiram Hoosier told his wife, "I'll give you a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet as soon as Barre's new Post Office is built of sandstone" and his wife said, "You'll not give up on it that way."

A woman who knows how much work the Hoosier Cabinet saves will never give up 'til she owns one.

300,000 other women use Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets.

They are all enthusiastic about the new way of doing kitchen work. They know what it means.

Mr. Husband;

Christmas surely is on the way.

If you could appreciate fully the experience of these other women, you would count the days 'til you could have a Hoosier Cabinet in your kitchen.

We have done everything we can to make it easy for you to see what this cabinet really means to you.

And we have made terms so liberal and agreeable that you can own a Hoosier Cabinet without ever missing the little money it costs.

Your cabinet is ready for you, and a word now will put it in your kitchen—Christmas or before.

The teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday school held their annual meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Milne on Liberty street, for the purpose of electing officers. The present officers were unanimously re-elected, after which all enjoyed a social time. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Milne.

The feature of the Congregational to-day is another strong western picture, entitled "Judgment." It is one of those pictures taken in the West and, therefore, has the proper scenic surroundings, which are always pleasing to the easterners. The story itself is one that contains more than the ordinary amount of thrills. As such pictures have proved very popular, this will no doubt draw a large attendance.

Four films constitute the entertainment to-day at the Bijou. Two of them are interesting melodramas and two are really funny comedies. Not one of them but what will be appreciated by the audience. The song is popular enough to be whistled on the streets. Thursday, Friday and Saturday again this week, coupon tickets will be issued to all patrons, and Saturday night a $5.00 gold piece will be presented to someone.

The two coaches and baggage car on the Central Vermont train, which were damaged a few weeks ago by running into the end of a coal car, which had been left standing partly on the main line tracks and the Wells River transfer tracks in the local yard, were put back onto the train to-day, after being repaired. The coaches are large vestibuled cars and have been thoroughly cleaned and painted, making a very neat and comfortable train.

The feature picture of the new program at Dreamland to-day is, "The Trick That Failed." A pretty, struggling girl artist is loved by an artist who has already had name and fame. She refuses to marry him until she has sold her own paintings. He arranges a scheme to have his servants buy her pictures. All works well until the last, then she discovers she has been fooled, and she immediately marries a German artist, who has desired to pay attention to her. It is a good show.

The vaudeville performers, who close their engagement at the Pavilion to-night, are without a doubt the best performers yet seen at this popular little theatre. Kepp and Keppy, the comedy jugglers, being the best in their line ever seen in Barre. Their juggling feats are truly marvelous, and with comedy stunts that never fail to produce real mirth. A finish that is sensational, consisting of holding a lady, chair, table and dishes in his teeth, balancing them there while juggling balls, is indeed remarkable. The act is deserving of the highest praise.

KILLED BY A FALL.

William Wilson Fell Thirty Feet, After Walking Out Wrong Door.

Derby, Dec. 8.—William Wilson, who lives with his brother, Fred Wilson, in the west part of the town, met death in a peculiar manner Wednesday night. Coming home late, he went to the barn and, by mistake, walked out of the wrong door, falling 30 feet to the yard below. He struck on his head on the frozen ground, inflicting an ugly wound. As his limbs were somewhat erratic, the family thought nothing of his absence. When Fred Wilson went to the barn at four o'clock the following morning, he found the prostrate form of his brother in the yard, covered with blood and with both hands frozen. He was unconscious and lived but twelve hours after being found. The dead man was a carpenter by trade. The funeral was held Saturday noon from the house.

MADE MATTERS WORSE.

Her Effort to Correct Her Error About Charles and Mary Lamb.

Charles Lamb, the beloved Elia of the essays, wrote both tragedies and comedies, but was not a successful playwright. When his farce "Mr. H." was produced at the Drury Lane theatre it failed conspicuously, and the genial author, who was in the audience, himself joined with companionable vigor in blaming it.

It is, indeed, an airy trifle, too slight in texture for the professional stage, but it has proved a charming play for amateurs. At a recent performance by a college dramatic society a little dialogue took place between two ladies in the audience which would certainly have delighted Lamb himself could he have heard it.

"Mr. H., a farce in two acts by Charles Lamb," read one of them from her program. "Do you know, I had quite forgotten that Lamb was a dramatic author."

"Oh, my dear," exclaimed her neighbor, with a superior smile, "of course he was! Surely you must remember that he and his sister collaborated with Shakespeare."

"Collaborated with Shakespeare!" exclaimed the first speaker, startled out of her politeness. "Ridiculous! What could have put such an idea—Oh, you must be thinking of the 'Tales from Shakespeare' by Charles and Mary Lamb."

There was mirth in her voice, and the superior person, smiling, perceived that overhasty "rambling" for the occasion had led her into error. She tried to retrieve herself.

"I did not mean to collaborate with him, of course," she explained loftily. "That was merely a slip of the tongue. I meant translated him."—Youth's Companion.

OUR OVERSTOCKED SALE

Closes Saturday Evening, this Week

After that a return to former prices. There are already several things sold out. There are left the following. If you are in position to take advantage of this sale it means a larger saving than you would at first realize. It's a profit to you that we under ordinary conditions should have to pay expenses.

Dress Goods

We have gone it a little too heavy here. In fact, a Boston dress good house going out of business sold us dress goods from 20 to 25 per cent. under the market, and we bought heavily. Marked $1.00 goods $7c. and $1.50 and $1.75 at $1.35. Needless to say, we did a double business, but not enough to dispose of the load, so that now we are out the price again.

In fact, we are to make these few days' sale do the business by selling every piece of Dress Goods in our stock at a liberal mark down. Come, take your choice, and make this mark down saving.

Cloths that were our best are in this sale, every piece from 50c up cut to reduce stock.

Such cloths as 50 and 54-inch Suitings, newest cloths and colors, that were $1.00 and $1.75, now, to reduce, at, per yard $1.19.

These compared in width to narrow goods at $1.19 would be about the same as $1.00 goods for 60c.

We have a few odd pieces of heavy Plaid Cloakings that were $1.25, good to line fur coats or carriage robes, now, to close at $1.00.

A discount on all silks above 50c per yard. This refers to Dress Silks for evening dresses. The line is just now the largest ever in our store.

We are selling a $1.25 Broadcloth in nearly all colors, at, per yard $1.00. Nearly all colors in an Imitation Sarsine Silk. In fact, it is just as good, the only difference is that Sarsine Silk sells at 47c, and this, just as good, at, per yard $2.00.

Ladies' White

Shirt Waists

We have a few odd soft Lingerie Waists in large sizes. These are good values, only a little mused. These we offer to close at just one half the regular price.

The most popular Waist of the season is the Laundered Waist, and this is the Waist we overstocked on, which is to be your gain.

At 79c are some values in a White Waist made in a good style, with starched collar and cuffs. This is our regular $1.25 value. There are a number of different styles and all sizes, at $1.00.

At $1.00 are a few good weight Muslin Waists with starched cuffs and collar, plaid fronts. These are our regular $1.50 Waists. Now at $1.00.

At $1.50 are a number of good styled Waists in a good quality butters' linen, made in one of the best styles, with collar and cuffs. Are our regular $2.00 Waists, at only $1.50.

At $2.00 are what we have left of White Waists in linen and pique. Are our regular $2.50 Waists, now at $2.00.

At $2.00 are some odd Waists with embroidered fronts and collar and cuffs. These are Linen Waists and are a regular $3.00 Waist, now $2.00.

At $1.00 are what we have left of our Colored Waists, that have sold at $1.50. Now for $1.00.
